DECLARATION OF STEPHEN M. HARRIS

I, Stephen M. Harris, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at law duly licensed to practice before this Court. I am a member of the law firm of KNAPP, PETERSEN & CLARKE, counsel of record for Plaintiffs in this action. The following facts are within my personal knowledge, and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. At the request of Mr. Cannata, I provided him copies of Plaintiffs motion for final approval, fee application, and the declarations submitted in support of the motion for final approval, so that he could evaluate whether or not he wished to continue to pursue his objections to the class action settlement, appear at the fairness hearing, or withdraw his objections.

3. After I provided these papers to Mr. Cannata, I was advised by Mr. Cannata that he had decided to withdraw his objections, based on his review of this paperwork. I also spoke to an attorney who had been consulted by Mr. Cannata, but who had not been retained by Cannata, and I was also by advised by this attorney, Edward Cochran, that he had reviewed the final approval papers and that he did not believe that (after his review of these papers) that Mr. Cannata had any valid objections to the class action settlement, and that he had advised Mr. Cannata of his opinion.

4. Subsequent to these conversations, Mr. Cannata emailed me a document formally withdrawing his objections and requested I file it. We attempted to manually file this document, but the court would not accept it for filing. Thus, we are e-filing the withdrawal of the objections as an exhibit to this document.
